

Prof. Stephen P. Magee

Prof. of Business and Economics    University of Texas at Austin
magee@mail.utexas.edu

Founder, Magee and Magee, Economic Consulting Firm
1801 Lavaca St #10E Austin, TX 78701
512 656-6666
www.mageeandmagee.com

Areas of Expertise Based on Prof. Magee's Academic Research and Teaching (clients for whom he has testified in parentheses)

Patents: reasonable royalties and lost profits (Microsoft [twice], HP, Cisco, Amazon, Exxon Chemical, Dow Chemical, Via, Medela, AFC, Mondis, Dell)
Damages (Exxon, Hewlett-Packard, Major US Paper Companies)
Antitrust (7 Hollywood Movie Studios, Dow Chemical, DuPont)
Energy (ExxonMobil, Chevron, Amoco, Baker Hughes, Weatherford International)
Security valuation (Texas Genco- CenterPoint, Republic Waste, Tidel)
Class certification (Allstate, Crossroads, 7 Hollywood Movie Studios)
Public utility regulation (CenterPoint-Texas Genco, Constellation New Energy)

Academics: University of Texas at Austin and Other

Bayless/Enstar Chairholder & Prof. of Finance & Economics, UT Austin, 1976-present
Chairman of the Department of Finance at UT Austin, 1980-1984
PhD in economics from MIT, 1969
Asst Professor, University of California, Berkeley, 1969-71
Assoc Professor, University of Chicago 1971-76; Visiting 1990, 1991 and 1997
Associate Editor for five academic journals

White House staff, 1972-1973
National Science Foundation Committee for Economics
U.S. Secretary of Commerce Economic Advisory Board
Co-captain & player, U.S. National Soccer Champions, 7 years, 1999-2001; 2005-2008

Co-authored Black Hole Tariffs, a book endorsed on the cover by two Nobel laureates in economics and the Chair of the Nobel Committee, Assar Lindbeck
Has published nearly 80 academic articles and three books
Selected best professor, teaching the first year of MBA Program, 1980 and 2000
Selected top researcher, career contributions, Graduate School of Business, 1990

In 2003, Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan quoted Magee's still-current 1969 research explaining the 40 year decline in the US trade balance
NY Times columnist Paul Krugman quotes Magee's trade-balance effect as "one of the most important empirical regularities in all of economics"
In 2003, presented paper on capitalism & information revolution before Castro & 1000 economists in Havana, Cuba and met with Castro for over an hour