

Over 30 years experience as a document examiner. Second Vice-President of the National Association of Document Examiners (NADE) and Recertification Chairman. Areas of expertise include document identification, forgery, forensic document analysis, handwriting comparison, handwriting identification, records alteration analysis, photocopy identification, wills, and questioned documents.

EXPERIENCE

Have testified as an expert witness on over 80 occasions and provided professional opinion on cases involving:

Disputed wills	Typewriter alteration and/or additions	Altered medical records
Contracts	Falsified university medical research records	Falsified loan documents
Note left at murder scene	Suicide note	Altered checks
Airplane maintenance logs	Spray paint writing in arson case	Bank cards/embezzlement
Annuity fraud	Falsified letters of understanding in divorce	Old church records
Harassment letters	Marriage licenses	Ponzi scheme documents
Product sabotage threats	I-9 employment forms (Spanish)	Falsified powers of attorney
Falsified company records	Falsified plant damage loss estimates	Graffiti
Disputed delivery records	Beneficiary changes on insurance policies	Falsified indemnity agreement
Questioned promissory notes	Death threat letters to company executives	Disputed insurance applications

Clients have included banks, credit unions and mortgage companies; doctors, nursing homes and healthcare companies; manufacturers and large chain stores; private schools and colleges; oil and electric companies; local and state government entities and international trade unions; attorneys and private investigators; celebrities, book publishers and communications/crisis management companies; title insurers and life insurance companies; public defender offices (including Federal), and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

CERTIFICATION

Certified by the National Association of Document Examiners (NADE)

SPECIALIZED TRAINING

- 19 annual training conferences by NADE since 1991, including pre-conference classes.
- Have participated in 33 additional training conferences sponsored by WADE, ABFE, AFDE, IAQDE, SEAK, and NBDE since 1986.
- Trained one on one with Mrs. Pat Fuller, prominent document examiner in Nashville. Mrs. Fuller (now deceased) was accepted in court over 125 times and acted as my mentor for over 10 years.
- Studied the Advanced Studies Course in Extended Training in QD Problems by Andrew Bradley, former FBI examiner.

Please call for a complete CV, detailing specialized laboratory equipment, lectures and classes taught, publications, and organization memberships.