

Mitchell W. Hicks, Ph.D., ABPP

3411-C North Kennicott Avenue
Arlington Heights, Illinois 60004

Phone: (630) 849-8275

Email: mwhicks@DrMitchellHicks.com

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

Forensic Psychology	Standard of Practice
Criminal Competencies	Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy
Sex Offender Risk Assessment	Psychotherapy with Correctional Populations
Mitigation	Sexual Compulsivity
Personal Injury	Clinical Supervision
Worker's Compensation	Psychology of Men and Masculinity

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Independent Practice of Clinical Psychology and Clinical Counseling, 2004-Present

Walden University, School of Psychology, Core Faculty, 2008-Present

Roosevelt University, Department of Counseling and Human Services,

Chief Director of Field Placement and Assistant Professor, 2005-2008

Assistant Professor, 2006-2008

Visiting Assistant Professor, 2005-2006

Liberty Behavioral Healthcare, Illinois Department of Human Services,

Clinical Therapist, 2004-2005

LICENSURE & CERTIFICATION:

Licensed Clinical Psychologist (Illinois #071-006835)

Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor (Illinois #180-005185)

Board Certified Clinical Psychologist (American Board of Professional Psychology #6684)

Approved Assessment and Treatment Provider (Adults: Illinois Sex Offender Management Board)

TRAINING:

Illinois School of Professional Psychology at Argosy University,
Psychology (Post-Doctoral) Resident, 2003-2004

Wright State University, School of Professional Psychology,
Internship, 2002-2003

EDUCATION:

Post-Graduate Certificate, Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis, June 2009

Ph.D., Clinical Psychology, University of Cincinnati, August 2003

M.A., Clinical Psychology, University of Indianapolis, August 1998

B.A., Psychology, Anderson University, May 1996