VINCENT A. GALLAGHER
PRESIDENT
SAFETY RESEARCH, INC.

739 White Horse Pike, Suite 6
Audubon, New Jersey 08106
(856) 547-4884 Fax (856) 547-5551

Languages: English and Spanish

Areas of Expertise:	OSHA Standards and Procedures; Construction Safety Management Principles and Procedures-Role of Owner, General Contractor, Construction Manager, Contractor, etc.; Fall Hazard Control; Machine Guarding; Scaffolding; Excavations
Professional Experience:	Former OSHA Official, performed 792 OSHA inspections, trained OSHA inspectors and wrote OSHA Training Material, Industrial Safety Consultant to Government, Industry, Labor, United Nations Agencies and Universities. Has consulted throughout the United States and in eight countries. Testified in many Federal and State Courts as Safety Expert. Investigated over 1000 industrial accidents.
Education/ Training:	Master's Degree in Occupational Safety and Health from New York University - Center for Safety. Received Fellowship from U.S. Department of Labor. Occupational Safety and Health Administration, 1978-79.
Awards & Commendations:	Received twelve Awards or Commendations by U.S. Department of Labor, OSHA 1972-1985. United Nations Award for Occupational Safety and Health Work performed in Latin America. White Lung Association of New Jersey, for Extraordinary Contribution in Protecting Public Health Against Exposure to Asbestos, 1990. PHILAPOSH, Special Achievement Award, Philadelphia, PA, 1983, 2012.
Professional Affiliations:	American Society of Safety Engineers, Human Factors Society, National Safety Council, National Safety Management Society and International Fall Hazard Control Society
Teaching:	Taught three credit hour course in Safety Management and Engineering at Burlington County College. Has lectured as Assistant Adjunct Instructor in nine universities.