

THE FIRM

The Tinari Economics Group (TEG) is a team of Ph.D. economists and analysts who provide economic consulting services in litigated matters, industry studies and other research projects. Our forensic experts specialize in writing individualized economic loss appraisals for solo attorneys, large law firms, private industry, and government agencies. We have authored more than four thousand reports and our experts have collectively testified in more than 900 trials, hearings and depositions in NY, NJ, PA, CT, MA, FL, GA, CO, and other venues.

We are a cost-effective and exceptionally responsive alternative to larger consulting firms. The goal of TEG is to meet the needs of law firms, large or small, at reasonable rates. Because of the cutting-edge knowledge and broad experience of its testifying experts, TEG has excellent command of the many substantive issues that may arise in the course of an engagement. And with our staff of full-time research analysts, we are able to quickly respond as needed to changing needs and circumstances. TEG further distinguishes itself by attempting to adhere to the highest ethical standards. We strive to extend civility and professionalism in all circumstances -- to attorneys, their clients, and the Court.
