

MARK LEVIN MD
MEDICAL ONCOLOGY/ HEMATOLOGY

6 Gel Court
Monsey NY 10952
mlevinmd@aol.com

www.cancertreatmenttoday.org

Tel: (845) 406-2183

Fax: (845)426-0009

Dr. Mark Levin is an academic physician who initiated professional activities in 1990, long and varied professional experience in various practice settings, including four directorship positions; Board certified in Internal Medicine and Medical Oncology, Board eligible in Hematology. Dr. Levin is certified by the American Board of Quality Assurance and Utilization Review.

He was an Associate Professor and Clinical Associate Professor in two different medical schools. Internal Medicine training at Hahnemann University, completed a hematology/ oncology fellowship at North Shore Systems in 1990; varied and extensive experience in academic and community private practice settings, many academic publications and multiple lectures to professional and lay groups. Excellent personal, verbal and presentation skills, holds an MBA.

Additional Services:

President of Medical Review and Information Services, a provider of case review and utilization review services in Oncology, President and CEO of Gaucher Disease Centers. Runs a blog devoted to defining standards of care in oncology, for utilization review and medico-legal sectors. In the non-profit sector, he is the President of Children Education Initiative, a community initiative in the field of Special Education.

Experience:

Analyzed cases from oncology and hematology perspective for plaintiffs/ defendants and managed care and financial services clients; composed Expert reports that have addressed issues central to litigation and assisted in formulating strategy. Drafted and assisted with policy formulation and coverage standards as well as composition of clinical guidelines and determination of standards of care.