

Mark Siegert, Ph.D.
Clinical and Forensic Psychology

Former Faculty, Harvard University, Harvard Medical School,
Columbia University
Expert witness throughout US, offices in New Jersey and New York
(973) 258-0370 (tel) (973) 258-0371 (fax)
E-mail: Dr MarkSiegert@gmail.com
Web: www.ForensicPsychologyExpert.com

Areas of Expertise

Civil 50/50 Defense/Plaintiff

Complex Litigation -- multiple plaintiffs

Detection of Symptom Magnification and Malingering

Employment: Discrimination (age, gender, sexual preference, sexual harassment, wrongful termination, ADA, Fitness for Duty)

Educational Discrimination including disabilities

Educational Discrimination of visually impaired

Excessive Force

Violence risk assessment

Wrongful Birth

IME

Law Enforcement Psychology including Fitness and candidate examinations

Psychological and neuropsychological damage

Guardianship

Contractual competency

Memory Impairments

Psychological Testing including admissibility, strengths and weaknesses of various tests

Posttraumatic Stress Disorder

Chronic Pain

Depression

Anxiety

Substance Abuse

Criminal

Competence to Proceed to Trial

Criminal Responsibility

Death Penalty including Atkins Hearings

Risk Assessments (violence and sex offender)

Miranda Competency

Mitigating Factors

Posttraumatic Stress Disorder

Mental Illness

Substance Abuse

Media appearances include: O'Reilly Factor, Paula Zahn, Connie Chung, Crossfire, MSNBC, NPR

Extensive CV with international presentations, presentations for Continuing Legal Education, hospital and clinical practice available upon request.