

Richard Buch, M.D.

Board Certified, Fellowship Trained Orthopedic Oncologist

The Dallas Limb Restoration Center
4001 W 15th Street, Ste. 290
Plano, Texas 75093

469-443-0924 (Office)
BuchMD@DallasLimbRestoration.com
DallasLimbRestoration.com

Areas of Expertise:

Uni Knee Replacement, Knee Replacement, Bilateral Knee Replacement
Hip Replacement, Bilateral Hip Replacement
Shoulder Replacement, Reverse Shoulder Replacement, Shoulder Surgery
Ankle Replacement and Elbow Replacement
Revisions of all Major Joints
Complex Joint Reconstructions
Complex Infections of the Bone and Soft Tissue
Oncology Procedures of the Bone and Soft Tissue
Lesions and Tumors of the Bone and Soft Tissue
Limb Salvage
Limb Restoration and Preservation

Professional Experience:

The Dallas Limb Restoration Center
Founder, President, and Orthopedic Surgeon
1989-Present

Education:

Bachelors: 1976 University of Illinois, Champaign, Illinois
Medical School: 1982 University of Illinois, Champaign, Illinois
Internship: 1982-1983 Indiana University School of Medicine, Department of Orthopedic Surgery
Residency: 1983-1987 Indiana University School of Medicine, Department of Orthopedic Surgery
Fellowship: 1987-1988 Orthopedic Oncology
George Washington University Medical Center
Washington Hospital Center
Children's National Medical Center

Publication, Course Director, Education Sessions:

Major Amputations Done with Palliative Intent in the Treatment of Local Bony Complications
Associated with Advanced Cancer. Malawer MM, Buch R, Thompson WE, Sugarbaker PH.
Journal of Surgical Oncology 47:121-130

1st, 2nd, 3rd Arthroplasty Disaster International Conference. Buch, R-Co-Director

American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons, Annual Meeting: Ask an Expert-Tumor/Oncology-2011, 2012, 2013