

EUGENE E. ATHERTON

Correctional Consulting Services Group, Inc.

101 Yucca Ave. Florence, CO 81226

719 289 8096

geneatherton@gmail.com

www.corrconsultgroup.com

Areas of Expertise

- Confinement Conditions
- Correctional Facility Design
- Correctional Organizational Management
- Correctional Staffing Issues/Training
- Corrections Technology
- Criminal Behavior
- Criminal Justice
- Crisis Management
- Deaths in Police Custody
- Discrimination
- High Risk Offenders
- Jail Standards & Safety
- Law Enforcement Training
- Prison Deaths
- Prison Standards
- Prisons/Jails
- Terrorist Inmates
- Use of Force

Employment

April 1977 - Present

37 years of progressively responsible leadership positions in prisons management with retirement as regional director in Colorado Corrections and continuing as a correctional consultant.

June 2004 – Present

President, Correctional Consulting Services Group, LLC
Providing consulting services on a broad range of issues related to U.S. and international corrections related to prisons and jails.

Dec. 2011 – Dec 2013

Corrections Advisor, United States Department of State – International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Program, Washington, DC.,
To provide advisory services on corrections issues to the US Department of State/US Embassy and the Government of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan.

Education

Michigan State University, BA, Social Science, 1971

Awards And Commendations

- 2004 Recipient, Harry Tinsley Award, from the Colorado Criminal Justice Association
- Work performance appraisals as Peak Performer for numerous, consecutive years.
- Four special accommodations received for outstanding service in Afghanistan.
 - o Two by Ambassador Cunningham of the U.S. State Department, Kabul, Afghanistan, 2011 through 2013.
 - o Two letters of commendation letter, by the INL Director and Program Manager in Kabul, Afghanistan, 2011 through 2013.