

Firm Profile:

For over 40 years, RPC has been assisting clients with Expert Services, including consulting and expert witness testimony, for Personal Injury, Healthcare Litigation, Commercial Litigation and Certificate of Need matters. RPC also offers a wide selection of health data. We have served clients across the U.S, from Alaska to Florida and from New England to California. Contact us for a complimentary document review and consultation.

Team Members:

Ronald T. Luke, JD, PhD
Kacy L. Turner, MS, CLCP, CRC, CVE
Valerie Gray, MSA, ABV, CPA, CFE, CFF
Brian Piper, PhD
William C. Nemeth, MD

Anne Rauch, BSN, CLCP, RN
Hiral Patel, MHS, CRC
Robin B. Gage, MBA, MHA
Darcy Schaeffer, MLS
Thomas Sager, PhD

Services:

Life Care Plans
Neuropsychological Testing and Traumatic Brain Injury
Vocational Evaluations
Loss of Earning Capacity or Support
Present Value of Damages
Independent Medical Examinations
Medical Bill Analysis
Qui Tam Litigation in Healthcare
Payment Disputes
Medical Staff Disputes

Health Facility Construction Disputes
Professional Liability
Breach of Contract
Environmental Torts and Toxic Torts
Construction Disputes
Commercial Disparagement
Litigation over Non-Compete Agreements
Wrongful Termination
Commercial Economic Damages
Forensic Accounting

Why RPC?:

- 1.) National Experience. Our consultants have been accepted as expert witnesses in state and federal courts and before administrative agencies in over 25 states.
- 2.) Large Case Capability. RPC has a multi-disciplinary team and substantial data management resources that enable us to handle large cases efficiently and on a tight schedule.
- 3.) Wide Range of Experience. RPC has experience preparing expert reports and testifying for plaintiffs and defendants in many industries and professions in state and federal courts nationwide.
- 4.) Healthcare Expertise. RPC has special expertise determining liability and damages in cases involving health plans, hospitals, physicians, and other healthcare providers